

SLERP path injected at the block-0 output. Monotonic curve: the final-block readout curve crosses the 10% and the 90% level once each and never drops by more than 0.05 between neighbouring interpolation positions. r, rho and n count every monotonic curve, including the ones outside a cropped x range.