

Monotonic curve: the final-block readout curve crosses the 10% and the 90% level once each and never drops by more than 0.05 between neighbouring interpolation positions. Every point drawn is counted in r and in rho.